September NEWSLETTER

Give for Good Louisville

By donating to United Crescent Hill Ministries Sept 11 during Give for Good Campaign, you make it possible to help families like this dad-to-be and their daughter have a baby shower together and help them stay housed and fed. Your donation shows off hunger and homelessness. Join us in creating a compassionate community. Remember to donate Sept 11 at https://bit.ly/GoodUCHM or use the QR code below.

One Dad's Story

Meet newlyweds Mackiton Seung-gu Choi-ha or Choi-ha to Mackiton as he's quick to pick up his kids for the weekend. He doesn't have a car, but he hopes to afford one. But he's not letting transportation issues get in the way of his dreams. He's a hard worker and, a even though it strains his budget,

God Isaiah: anything unexpected that's been a blessing to him. The oldest of his fourteen children. That almost happened last year when his landlord wanted to evict him with a list of charges he didn't realize he owed. He says, he wouldn't accept them.

"So I'm all over Louisville asking for rental assistance," he says, but no one could help him. He approached a friend who knew of United Crescent Hill's executive director, and Mark Howell, executive director last year. "It there something we can do?," Mickiton asked.

"Is there something we can do?" Because I understand being a father."

"Because I used to be a father. I was married to a beauty." The two men bonded over the hurtful divorce custody of his kids.

"I'm not where I didn't help, but I'm not where I'm looking. No one had ready funds. Finally, UCHM found a way to come through, giving him enough money to get over the hump, which was the last piece he needed to secure his apartment.

See page 2

One Dad's Story

Continued from page 1

"For the last 4 years, I always paid my rent. You must not pay the rent," he said. He attributes he was in arrears surprised him. "And I was like, all I do is work. I work, work, work."

Mackiton is no stranger to poverty or dispossessive joint conditions that started in high school, Back then, he'd shine a little basketball and not be able to head his laces afterwards, UP Louisville, Mackiton is a 6'7" guard. He's also a title. Now, as he approaches 40, has rekindled his ambition.

UCHM continues to plan an important role in his family. He visits our pantry weekly for groceries.

"It's beautiful. It's like a blessing," he says. "The people at the center feel like family. Without them, I don't know where I'd be.

"When I go to the pantry, the line is long. Everybody loves him cause he's always got time for them."

Thanks to all who supported more than 100 children and 50 families with school supplies. We had enough money this year – backed-to-school understatements, socks and shoes. Great work everyone! ✧

We're grateful to all the awesome folks who supported our vibrant no-plus program by buying masks. We increased sales over last year by more than 60%! Thanks to you from the bottom of our hearts! ✧

502-893-0346

WE NEED SHOES!

Our shoe drive has been extended until Oct. 15. We need at least 50 more bags of shoes to meet our goal.

Can you ask your neighbors, fellow book-club members, nonprofit teammates, your bowling league pals, your PTA, your church, your family and anyone else you know to donate their new or gently used shoes to this fundraiser?

Fundraising proceeds allowed us to extend our drive. This organization sends the shoes you donate to Nicaragua, where they're sold at a fraction of their value. Sometimes, Fundraiser pays you for the shoes we donate. So the more shoes you get, the more money we have for programming at UCHM. ✧

Bring your shoes to 150 State Street between 9 and 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

MAHJONG NIGHT

Join the fun 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 8

Our Mahjong Night was such a success, we've decided to bring it back. Join us again on the second Wednesday of every month.

No need to go to 150 E. Main Street – just a few steps off Frankfort Avenue – from 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 8.

Mahjong players, we'll be gently used or new pairs of shoes, or any combination of dollars or shoes. Oh! I know it'll swing lots of shoes!

We'll have refreshments on hand and a fly entry split-the-pot raffle.

We'll be teaching folks how Mahjong set, and we'll have several on hand. Now to the players: Someone will be on hand to help newbies. ✧

60-PLUS EVENTS IN SEPTEMBER

TUESDAYS

September 6
10:15 a.m. Kurt Sally's Crafts.

September 23
10:30 a.m. Domino Scrapples plays piano.

September 30
10:30 a.m. Plum Song Tire performs.

THURSDAYS

September 11
10:30 a.m. Graham Mathews from Oak Street Health hosts Health Jeopardy.

September 25
10:15 a.m. Happy Birthday to July, August and September babies.

Also at 10:15 a.m. Blue Moon Karaoke.

EVERY WEEK

Tuesdays
10:30 Chair yoga with Anna. Join the group any time.

Tuesdays & Thursdays
11:15 a.m. Lunch served. Reservations required one week in advance.
Call 893-0346.

Tuesdays & Thursdays
11:45 a.m. After lunch, it's time for Bingo!

Wednesdays
10 a.m. Strength and resistance exercise with Joe Bohannon.

Wednesdays
10 a.m. People of all ages can join our Computer Club. Whether you're a newbie already, help starts here. Or Project Baby Launch. If you've never made anything with a printer, this group is ready to teach you how to get started.

502-893-0346

60-PLUS EVENTS IN OCTOBER

EVERY WEEK

Tuesdays

10:30 a.m. Chair yoga with Anna. New members always welcome!

Tuesdays & Thursdays
11:15 a.m. Lunch served. Reservations required one week in advance. Call 893-0346

11:45 a.m. After lunch, it's time for Bingo!

Wednesdays
10 a.m. Strength and resistance exercise with Joe Bohannon.

10 a.m. Anyone of any age is welcome to join our crochet group. If you know how to crochet already, you can help make items for Project Baby Launch. If you've never crocheted anything with yarn, this group will help you get started.

TUESDAYS

October 7
10:30 a.m. Octoberfest! Polka the morning away. Join us for our filled breakfast.

October 14
10:30 a.m. Live music with the Elderbloms

October 21
10:15 a.m. Kurt Sally's Crafts

October 28
10:15 a.m. Bring your own board game

THURSDAYS

October 2
10:30 a.m. Allison Woosley from the Office of Aging and Independent Means shares resources with seniors.

October 9
10:15 a.m. Live music with the Misfeeld Masons

October 16
10:30 a.m. Mary Smurfit from Marylanes hosts a Medicare enrollment event.

October 23
10:15 a.m. Blue Moon Karaoke.

October 30
10:30 a.m. Halloween Party. Wear a costume and we'll play Let's Make A Deal.

502-893-0346

after school FUN!

It's not too late to enroll your children in our after-school program.

It's free with (continuance available), this grant includes a meal. The program runs 1-6 p.m. Monday-Thursday, following the in-house classes.

Public School System schedule.

To enroll your children, use this QR code and scroll down to the enrollment form. Or type bit.ly/schoolfun in your browser.

Join the Fall Festival Fun 4-7:30 p.m. Sept. 27

when Crescent Hill Baptist and St. Mark's Episcopal churches sponsor a Festival to raise money for UCHM ✧

You'll find the bash along Frankfort Avenue, between Birchwood and Kennedy avenues.

Crescent Hill Baptist & St Marks Episcopal churches are throwing a tall GATHERING and FISH FRY and CORNHOLE competition and besides FISH there are HOT DOGS and BRATS and BEER and BEVERAGES and JAZZ and KARAOKE and DISC GOLF and FOURSQUARE and don't forget PICKLEBALL

FESTIVAL FUN

502-893-0346

She's Got the Spirit!

It's not just Pittsburgh Steelers fans or sweaters who recognize the spirit and energy the UCHM Community Council brings to the table. everything. Now, the Crescent Hill Community Council has weighed in, honoring Monique with this year's Sarah Lee Kendall Spirit Award. Monique, left, is pictured with Terry Dunham, long-active in the community council.

Volunteers Need: Can You Help?

If you'd like to make a real contribution to your community, UCHM has the place for you. Interested, give us a call or see the room. We need volunteers in the following areas:

- Do you know how to cook? Cause? We could use another person with a little design flair and knowledge of how to cook for 50.
- Meals-On-Wheels needs drivers. Before food to folks who can't get out.
- We need someone to do data entry in the food pantry.
- If you have a car, you can help us by picking up groceries from donated retail locations.
- Do none of the above seem quite for you, but you'd like to help out? Give us a call. ✧

Rent Our Community Room

Do you need a place to hold your bash? Our community room might stand out and is available for rent. Call 502-893-0346 to enquire. ✧ please consider it. Meals is a cue, especially those with gray roots, like Chef Bernadette, are also always welcome, as are canned meats, canned fruits, canned vegetables, canned corn, oatmeal, sausage gravy, shelf-stable dinners. And as always, we need toilet paper and diapers, sizes 4 - 6. ✧

Help Us Help Others

Every month we receive food deliveries from local groups and bakeries.

Sometimes, we've got closer to the delivery date, the orphaned grocers have, especially in the number of bakers to the pantry, steadily increases.

This month, we are very low on meat. If you can afford to donate hamburger or chicken,

Need Help Getting Here?

Our next clothing giveaway is 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 27. Please come and get what you need.

Every month we receive food deliveries from local groups and bakeries.

Sometimes, we've got closer to the delivery date, the orphaned grocers have, especially in the number of bakers to the pantry, steadily increases.

This month, we are very low on meat. If you can afford to donate hamburger or chicken,

CHECK LIST

Every month we receive food deliveries from local groups and bakeries.

Sometimes, we've got closer to the delivery date, the orphaned grocers have, especially in the number of bakers to the pantry, steadily increases.

This month, we are very low on meat. If you can afford to donate hamburger or chicken,

TEAM EFFORT

Can we get a round of applause for our hard-working bike & farm (wide)?

They come by this month to give UCHM the bikes and produce that would have rust a bundle.

We're sure the team members went home with sore muscles. And we hope they're also filled with gratitude for a job well done.

The whole day was thanks to Dante St. Louis, who brought the team to help orange all next item. It was the third time Sam's let him sponsored what they call "Day of Service" where their non-businesses contribute labor to food pantries, Ronald McDonald House and other services. ✧

There's a pedaling way to increase your giving by UCHM. You know that Kroger card you use to take advantage of discounts?

Every time you use it, Kroger makes a donation to us if you do the following: Go to Kroger.com/communityrewards, log in, search for Give to Zero, click where it says "search for your organization here," and select United Crescent Hill Ministries.

That's it! It's not a load of money, but it all helps.